

The State of Indiana is not a primacy state for Class VI and as such does not have any requirements concerning AoR delineation. No additional information is required.